

Village of Crooksville
Council Workshop Meeting
May 13, 2024

Mayor Mohler calls the meeting to order with the following Council Members present: Mr. Hampton, Mr. Locke, Mr. Loomis, Mr. Redfern, Ms. Smith and Mr. Walters. Lacey Tumblin and Courtney Edwards were also present.

First up on the agenda, Chelsea Seakman was present to discuss putting up a memorial site for her uncle Kaleb Russell, who just passed away. She would like to put something at South Park. She stated that the ballfields were his favorite place. The council agreed if she was able to put it out of the way so that it doesn't get destroyed. Mrs. Tumblin asked if she would like to get back with her this week and she would get with the mowing crew to see where the best place would be to put it.

Up next, Chris Rice was present to discuss the walking trail at Village Park.

Teresa Rice was present to request a handicap space for the Maple Ave side of the Christian Church by the ramp. The Council all agreed that would be fine.

Next, Mrs. Tumblin stated that the LAFF (Learning About Fishing and Feelings) Camp would like to have the rental fee waived for the shelter houses for July 22-26th. The council all agreed to waive the fee.

Next, Joshua Stamper was present to discuss the old fire department building. He would like to build a crisis network/coffee shop. He is open to other locations if the Village has any ideas. He would like to have some of his contractors come to visit so he can see the inside of the building and then see what the next steps would be. He stated he will get with Mrs. Tumblin when they plan to come visit again.

Up next, Mrs. Tumblin has the Star Ohio Totals. She passed them out to everyone.

Mayor Mohler stated that the 13th Annual Community Celebration will be June 29th and that it is also Crooksville's 150th Birthday. The Masonic Lodge would like to have a free swim for the general public.

Mrs. Tumblin stated that John, with Aspen Energy, would like to come and speak to everyone again at the next workshop meeting if anyone was interested in seeing that on the ballot.

Mrs. Tumblin stated that Laken Hall has applied for the Assistant Manager position. That will be on for the next meeting to vote on.
